Texas A&M University-Central Texas remains fully committed to pursue its Good Faith Effort opportunities to assist Historically Underutilized Businesses (HUBs) in an attempt to meet or exceed HUB goals.

Every effort is made to contract with HUBs whenever possible and build successful relationships with our HUB partners. Texas A&M University-Central Texas will continuously make a good faith effort to maximize our HUB purchasing and support HUB organizations. The following measures have been taken this past fiscal year:

- Assist HUB qualified businesses with information on gaining HUB certification
- Maintain a website containing useful HUB vendors to university departments
- Required all personnel who have purchasing responsibilities for the university to attend HUB training
- Analyze data to find procurement categories that can increase in HUB spending
- Research continuously for new local HUBs
- Attended HUB events and economic opportunity forums when time and budget allowed
- Currently seeking new Mentor-Protégé agreements

The university will continue to make the HUB program a priority and increase its efforts to build relationships and expand growth with certified HUB businesses.

Sincerely,
