

Supplemental Letter for FY 2015 Annual HUB Report for Agency 738

The University of Texas at Dallas is actively committed to increasing Good Faith Efforts that enhance HUB opportunities to qualified vendors via proactive involvement in increasing contracting and sub-contracting efforts. The University of Texas at Dallas remains diligent in maximizing outreach efforts that enhance vendor participation in contracting and subcontracting.

Supportive services offered to vendors:

- Open dialogue via in-person and phone meetings designed to address questions and/or concerns.
- Attendance at vendor expos
- Hosting annual vendor fair
- Periodic web page updates to inform viewers of current HUB program information
- Full-time personnel dedicated to HUB program efforts
- Oversight of Mentor-Protégé program

Outreach Activities - September 2014 through August 2015

- Hosted Hispanic Chamber meeting
- Hosted TAAACC (Texas Association of African American Chamber of Commerce) meeting
- Attended TAAACC Expo
- Regular attendance at TUHCA meetings
- Hosted TUHCA (Texas Universities HUB Coordinators Alliance) meeting
- Attended 2015 Access "Doing Business Texas Style" Expo
- Attended Annual Collin County Purchasing Professionals Meet & Greet
- Attended 2015 CPA Procurement Connection Seminar & Expo
- Attended 2015 Small Business Expo-Collin County Black Chamber of Commerce
- Attended 2015 Hard Hat Expo
- Attended Black Contractors Association Signature Awards Banquet
- Attended UT Southwestern Medical Center Annual Meet the Buyers event

The University of Texas at Dallas remains supportive of HUB initiatives. A full-time staff member has been assigned 100 percent HUB duties with the intent to monitor and improve this program. The university will continue to maintain the HUB program in a priority capacity, emphasize the importance of this initiative and maximize the opportunities for certified Texas based minority and women owned businesses.

Peter H. Bond, CPCP, C.P.M.
Assistant Vice President for Procurement Management
972-883-2301 | pbond@utdallas.edu
Procurement Management
The University of Texas at Dallas

The University of Texas at Dallas Procurement Management is committed to obtaining in a timely, lawful and cost-efficient manner the goods and services needed to benefit the University's mission: to provide educational and research programs of the highest quality.