

The 2012 State of Texas Procurement Manual contains the most recent information available on state procurement practices and procedures. It is a “living document” which will be revised periodically as the Comptroller’s office receives updated information. We expect the next revision to take place after the 2013 legislative session.

As updates are made to individual sections, a “revised” date will be placed at the end of the section.

If you have questions or comments, please contact Cody Hays at (512) 463-3392 or email cody.hays@cpa.texas.gov.